Our Mission

To resolve, in complete privacy, any problems, concerns, or issues that UUTC congregants experience, in order to help avoid major disputes

About Our Committee

The fact that conflict exists is not necessarily a bad thing. As long as it is resolved effectively, it can lead to personal and community growth. In many cases, effective conflict resolution can make the difference between positive and negative outcomes.

By resolving conflict successfully, we can solve many of the problems brought to the surface, and experience benefits we might not have expected, including increased understanding, enhanced group cohesion, and improved self-knowledge.

Anyone experiencing challenges within the context of UUTC relationships may approach our committee.

Our three members are recommended by the Committee on Ministry, and appointed by the board for two year terms. Our meetings are not open, nor are they published or discussed.
