Description of Committees, Projects, and Leadership Activities 2007 – 2008

UU CONNECTIONS COMMITTEE

Meeting Date and Time 1st Thursday of month, 10 am

Purpose and/or Mission Statement

To provide a liaison between the congregation and the Unitarian Universalist Association (UUA), the Unitarian Universalist Service Committee (USSC), the Thomas Jefferson District (TJD), the Western Carolinas Cluster (WCC), and The Mountain.

Duties/Focus of Committee

- To Promote awareness of issues of denominational concern
- To work with the Board, Minister, and committees such as Social Action, Worship, and Religious Education to act on selected issues of denominational concern
- To foster an understanding of and commitment to what it means to be a responsible member congregation of the UUA of congregations, the TJD, and the WCC
- To encourage participation in joint activities with other congregations, and participation and representation at the General Assembly, District, and Cluster meetings
- To provide information on all denomination connections activity to the congregation via a monthly newsletter article

Subcommittee Assignments

- Mountain Ambassador
- Chalice Lighter Coordinator
- Delegate to the Western Carolinas Cluster

Individual Assignments

Promote events and activities sponsored by neighboring congregations, the Cluster, the District, the UUA, and The Mountain.

Personal Interest/Skills Needed

Interest in Unitarian Universalism beyond the walls of our congregation.

Committee's greatest accomplishments

Introducing our congregation to the resources and opportunities available at The Mountain, General Assembly, TJD meetings and conferences, the annual Cluster Gathering, the Southeastern UU Summer Institute (SUUSI), and the Southeastern UU Winter Institute in Miami (SWIM).

Joys of being on the committee

Being connected with other UU congregations, our Cluster, our District, the UUA, and The Mountain, and sharing our enthusiasm for the larger UU world with our own congregation.

Approximate hours per month 3 hours, which does not include attendance at events outside UUTC
