

SUNDAY
SERMON

February 5 • God and the Unconscious with Rev. Ernest L. Mills, Jr.

What in the world is the Unconscious and what does it have to do with God? We will be exploring this idea in the context of Jungian psychology (did I say Jung?).

Children's Programs during 11:00 Service

During the 11:00 service, Jane Hilliard will join children 5-12.
Nursery care is available for younger children.

C A R I N G C O R N E R

After many years of providing warmth, understanding, love and compassion to numerous people in our congregation, Carolyn Fredley turned over the reigns of the Caring Committee. She has truly provided us with an exemplary style of watching over and tending to congregants of UUTC. What a wonderful person to have in our lives. Thank you and hugs for you, Carolyn.

And so, we move on. It's going to take four people to try to do all that Carolyn has done. You will now see the name Loving Hearts and Helping Hands rather than Caring Committee. Susan Bir, Linda Hauschild, Amy Huntley and Ann Rabb have formed a team and are working together in an attempt to carry out Carolyn's legacy.

The team also has many willing volunteers who have signed up to help with driving and meals. If you are a congregant who would like support, please feel free to contact a team member.

UUTC “WONDERFUL WEDNESDAYS”

FEBRUARY, 2012

“The horn, the horn, the lusty horn,
‘Tis not a thing to laugh to scorn”

-- William Shakespeare in As You Like It, Act IV, Sc. 2

The “Lusty Horn” series will feature UUTC hornist Lawrence Huntley, guest hornist Carol Weinhofer, and UUTC pianist-arranger John Austin in the performance of music for the French Horn. The highs and lows of Horn playing will be explored as we journey from the (hunting) field to the philharmonic to the phantom (of the opera)!

Feb. 8th The Solo/Chamber Horn: Mozart to Strauss

Feb. 15th The Horn goes to Broadway

Feb. 8th -- THE SOLO/CHAMBER HORN: MOZART TO STRAUSS

This session of the Lusty Horn series will feature horn music by distinguished father/son, composer-performers – Mozart and Strauss. The horn writing of fathers Leopold (Mozart) and Franz (Strauss), although noteworthy, is surpassed in the music of their sons Wolfgang and Richard, respectively. Chamber music masterpieces by Johannes Brahms and Benjamin Britten will round out this session.

February 2012 Sermons

February 5 • 9:30 and 11:00 am • Rev. Ernest L. Mills, Jr.

God and the Unconscious

What in the world is the Unconscious and what does it have to do with God? We will be exploring this idea in the context of Jungian psychology (did I say Jung?).

February 12 • 9:30 and 11:00 am • Gus Napier

The Gift of Time: Learning to Cherish the World

As we age, time takes its predictable toll; but it also adds to our wisdom and to our experience of living. Recent research shows that global well-being actually increases after fifty. With developmental psychologist Erik Erikson's stages of adult life as a guide, we will explore this period of midlife and later, and make suggestions about how we can take advantage of time's lessons -- in our self-development, and especially in our intimate relationships. We can cherish living in the world itself, and we can share those pleasures with those we love.

February 19 • 9:30 and 11:00 am • Rev. Ernest L. Mills, Jr.

How We Die

The Greek philosopher Plato believed that philosophy was a preparation for death. We cannot choose exactly how we will die, but we can choose to prepare ourselves for death. One way we can do this is by simply talking about it.

February 26 • 9:30 and 11:00 am • Peg Hall

Doing Who We Are

What does what we do, say about us? How does who we are influence what we do? We will explore distinctions between being and doing; "ministry" and work; souls and roles.

Childcare is held during both services.

Children's Religious Exploration is held during the 11:00 service
